

Graduate Student Tuition Scholarship Policy

Students who receive funding as fellows, teaching assistants, and /or research assistants are subject to the following policy regarding tuition scholarships.

All supported students receive a 100% tuition scholarship for the fall and spring semesters. Additionally, students who will continue to be supported for the next academic year receive a 100% tuition waiver for the summer semester to ensure continuous registration of the student.

Following termination of University support, the following tuition structure applies.

First academic semester (following termination):	100% tuition scholarship
Second academic semester:	65% tuition scholarship
Third academic semester:	35% tuition scholarship
Fourth academic semester:	Student pays full tuition

Students who leave the university and are employed in industry prior to the completion of their degree requirements are eligible for a 65% tuition scholarship.

In all instances, students are responsible for payment of all fees.
